Cookies Policy

Effective April 2021

Ohko School and its partners use cookies to improve user experience in our website and help personalise content. A cookie is a small data file stored by your browser at your device's hard disk for record-keeping purposes. Our cookies record;

We use cookies and other tracking technologies to improve your browsing experience on our website, analyse web traffic and understand where our visitors and users come from.

- login history
- webpages of this website visited by the user
- how many times user visited the website
- what information they have seen
- how long they stayed on a webpage

We are not able to detect the identity of the user or their Ohko accounts (if any). We will also make use of third parties like Google Analytics to record user engagements with the site for the purpose of improving user experience.
